

Satellite radio is a tremendous improvement in communication and entertainment. Restricting its effectiveness is a ridiculous attempt to protect radio broadcasters at the expense of the American people. We will be watching closely how our representatives and Senators weigh in on this issue.